Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples." 1 Chronicles 16:8

Throughout the Bible, we are commanded to be thankful. A spirit of thanksgiving is one of the most distinctive marks of a Christian whose heart is attuned to the Lord. First, we are to be thankful for all the blessings God gives us. Some people are never satisfied with what they have. But what a different it makes when we realize that everything we have has been given to us as gifts from God.

Second, we must never forget to thank God for the people in our lives. St. Paul said to the people of Philippi, "I thank my God every time I remember you." Phil. 1:3. It is so easy to take them for granted, or to complain, or become angry because they don't meet our every wish. But we need to give thanks for our spouse, our children, our relatives, our friends, and our neighbor. Most of all, thank God for Christ and his love us for us.

Third, we must thank God in the midst of trials and even persecution. St. Paul was separated from friends, unjustly accused, brutally treated and severely suffered in a harsh Roman prison. But look at what he wrote during his prison experience: "Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, always giving thanks to God the Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." Eph. 5:19-20. St. Paul's advice still holds truth to us today for two reasons:

- 1) Thankfulness takes the sting out of adversity. As we give God's thanks regardless how we feel, God will give us joy, regardless of our circumstances. This may sound irrational and at times impossible. But it is an act of obedience. When we obey God in this way we will experience joy even through difficulties.
- 2) Thankfulness opens our hearts to God's presence and our minds to God's thoughts. Although nothing has changed, we are still under a rock and in a hard place. However, we can see a light at the end through the dark. This empowers us to see from God's perspective and trust in God's faithfulness. During this Thanksgiving season, may we focus on a thankful attitude and anticipate spiritual blessings to fall freely onto us. St. Thomas S. Monson once said, "Sincerely giving thanks not only helps us recognize our blessings, but it also unlocks the doors of heavens." Let everyday be Thanksgiving Day.

*Joyfully your Pastor,
Kelly T. Van*

Candy Fundraiser

Dear Parents and Friends:

We chose See's because of its fine reputation for quality. Proceeds will go towards our trip to Redbird Mission 2016. This is a cause that is near and dear to our hearts as we participate in this mission every 2 years. We help re-build homes, repair roofs, put in new floors and sometimes just have a conversation with those that are lonely...just to name of few! For more info. about Redbird go to: <http://www.redbirdconference.org/> I will pick up all Final orders Sunday, Nov. 1st and be submitting the order on Monday the 2nd. Candy will be shipped Nov. 10th and ready for pick up the 20th. Checks are to be made payable to: Lemont United Methodist Church.

Please join us for a church work day on Saturday, November 7th at 9:00 a.m. We will need some help with window cleaning, kitchen cleaning, and possibly some outside assistance with the grounds.

Books Available in the Library By Kay Norfleet

Handyman wanted

We have widows in our church who may occasionally need help with household repairs: basic maintenance and grass cutting or snow shoveling. Ideally it could be a retired man with experience in building. Please contact the church office at: 630-257-5210 if you are interested.

2016 CALENDARS

Will be a available for pick up in December at the back of the church.

“Going Public with Your Faith”

I chose this book because of its title, and how I thought it fit in with our purpose: evangelizing. We've been studying James during church, and one of the main things James points out is that a Christian's works are more convincing to others than just talk. Our character convinces people of Who we represent. Our actions keep people coming back to hear the Word. Perhaps no one wants to read this book all the way through. However, the chapters describe several particular points that might be of interest. I found that the chapter on “Earning the Right to be Heard” had a few pointers. Perhaps you'll find another. One of the main ideas in the book is that your prayers, asking for wisdom about evangelizing to someone, deepen your relationship with God and will be most helpful. You can relate your Biblical understanding to current situations in the secular world which the other knows about. If you don't see immediate change in the person you are evangelizing just remember you will have planted the seed. God says He will do the rest.

“Moms' Night Out”

This is the story of a celebration of mothers-from several walks of life. God knows that mothers are special. They are special because they try to be mothers. What God intended when he designed mothers. They try to bring up their children according to the way God would like. However, and I know that you mothers understand, sometimes mothers just need a little time to themselves-a night out. This book of fiction, although I don't really think all of it is fiction, tells the frantic tale of three moms and their night out that took a weird turn. The movie is fun and funny, too.

“Praying the Gospel of John”

The writers believe that John is the cornerstone of the Christian faith. They offer 52 experiences and historical backgrounds to back up that premise. The entire gospel is a description of Christ, The mysteries of Christ are explored. Your prayers will necessarily reflect that you have studied the historical background and commentary. Christ used many teachable moments in front of his followers. They are recorded here for us. Christ linked himself to the Old Testament covenants and proved to his followers that He is and was the great “I AM.” The gospel of John gives us sight and ability to grasp that Christ's powers are not to be put in a box Every day we experience a new adventure in living for Christ. Pay attention!

“Thanksgiving Graces”

This is an easy read, picture book that prepares us for the special day set aside for thankfulness. As the main character learns, thanksgiving is NOT only about the food-though that is special-but the people involved. HAPPY THANKSGIVING to us all, and let's remember to practice thanksgiving a lot.

ESL Tutoring

Kay Norfleet has graciously offered to teach English as a second language to anyone in need in our church family.

If you are interested, you can contact her at 630-257-6699.

OPEN PANTRY NEWS

The Open Pantry has much to be thankful for in 2015! Including the donation of $5,000 cash from the Ellen M Kucera Trust and a $1,000 in gift cards from Lemont Sertoma. We are also thankful for the donations of our church members that allowed us to give $525 worth of school supplies. These school supply kits are specifically put together for the children in the families, which uses the two pantries in Lemont. If you are looking to support our food pantry we are in need of pasta and rice sides for this month.

Sanctuary Volunteers Are Needed!

As you have seen, the video and audio are up and running. What we need now are volunteers! We do not want to have one person stuck in the booth every Sunday. Plus we need to spread the knowledge around so when someone goes on vacation, there will be someone to fill in. Our goal is to have 4-6 people who are comfortable flipping through the computer presentation slides and 4-6 people who are comfortable raising and lower the sound on a mic so we do not have feedback. You do not have to worry. We will walk you through the programs and train you so you feel comfortable with the devices! We just need volunteers!

There is a sign-up sheet in the back of the sanctuary for both sound and presentation volunteers. We need people for both the 8:30 and 10:45 services. The more we have the better. That means that everyone will be able to sit with their family most Sundays. So, please put your name on the sign up sheet or stop by the booth and let Jana Stelter or someone on the Worship committee know. We will get you familiar with the program so you can get in the rotation to volunteer for a service.

Harvest Hash – Thanksgiving Trail Mix

Ingredients:

RAINBOW COVENANT*November Loose Change Sunday (11/22/15)

Today is "Loose Change Sunday." All loose change collected on the fourth Sunday of each month goes to support the Rainbow Covenant charities. For November, we are highlighting the blue band charity, Epworth Overnight Warming Center. Epworth UMC hosts a year-round overnight warming center that serves 65 men every night of the year, providing food, sanitary facilities, and safe haven. Transitional support services are available. Please place your loose change in the offering plate today to support their work. If you would like to make a larger offering to this specific charity, write "Epworth" on a pew envelope. Thank you for your support of the special ministries in the Rainbow Covenant.

Daylight-saving time ends

- Turn your clock back one hour tonight before going to bed.
- It's also time to change batteries in your smoke detectors.

WEBSITE Has Sermons

<http://lemontumc.org/video> has a list of available sermons.

Services are being recorded almost every week thanks to Matt and Erik.

If you would like a video of a part of the service, like a baptism or someone playing a song, please contact Paul Froehle. He can copy it to a DVD or flash drive as a computer or phone readable video file. Thank You

SUGGESTED NEW MINISTRY

In a recent Upper Room devotional, the author talked about visiting a retirement center for fellowship and sharing with the residents. After reading this article, I was so moved. Maybe we could form a group to have this kind of ministry! In the Lemont area, there are many centers. Please call me if you are interested. My number is: 815 838 6318. Looking forward to hear from you. Paulette Fries

The Greatest Friend

By Richard H. Lee

I have just come to the realization that we have a great and wonderful friend we may not even know. I was recently reading in John's Gospel in the Upper Room Discourse on Christ's last evening with his disciples and chapters 13-16 where the facts began to appear to me of our friend Jesus. For example, I see Him saying in 12:46-50 that, "I am the light that has come into the world so that all who believe in me won't have to stay any longer in the dark" (v.46 Message).

Then Jesus proceeded to wash the disciple's feet like a common servant and tell them to do the same (13:12). Then He gave them a new command to "love one another" (13:34-35) and in John 14:2-4 He tells them He will soon go back to heaven to prepare a home for them and later return to gather them. Then a remarkable and wonderful verse says, "The person who trusts me will do even greater things than I have done" (14:12), and, "Whatever you request (in prayer) in this way, I'll do" (14:14). This leads us to the way in which these things will happen that follows.

The Good News Bible from the American Bible Society and other translations describe the Holy Spirit sent from the Father to be with them and us as the "Helper" but the Message translation uses the term "another Friend (like Christ) so that you will always have someone with you and calls Him the "Spirit of Truth" (14:16). The Good News Bible says, "You know Him, for He remains with you and lives in you" (14:17). Later Jesus says the Friend will make everything plain to you and remind you of all the things I have told you (14:25-26). In chapter 15 Jesus teaches them the parable or principle of the Vine and the branches with abiding. I have just selected from my computer music library a new playlist on this to make a CD to enjoy and share.

Chairperson, Stewardship and Finance Committee

This is the next in a series of articles about stewardship. In these articles I will try to inform you about the many ways you can contribute to your church's programs.

"It's That Time of Year"

Yes, it's the time of year when the leaves are changing color and great beauty is generated all around us. Of course lots of yard work is also generated with bulbs to plant and leaves to collect and mulch up to help next year's flower production. In a way, my work as Finance Committee Chair also changes in much the same ways. I will be reporting on the great work done by our church (the beauty part) and I must undertake the task of encouraging you to pledge support for next year (the next year's production part).

This year I will be sending out only two letters, the second of which will include your pledge card. Please read these over and consider their messages as they relate to you as a Christian. I must admit that reporting on the financial issues of our church is the easy part of my job. The hard part is reminding my fellow members of their responsibilities as Christians to reach out and help those in need. Do you realize that, according to our annual budget, nearly 20% is outreach beyond our church, area, and country? This means that the other 80% is used to maintain, improve, and operate our church, but then again, just providing the church itself is a form of outreach too.

So, when you consider your pledge of support for next year, think about it as a form of Christian Outreach, which is what we Christians are expected do with our lives here on earth.

Audio-Visual Sanctuary Update

Changes are in the air. The sound booth is taking shape. In the mean time, the new sound system and flat screens are installed. A computer is already stationed in the booth.

We appreciate your patience during the construction phase and in the future as we work to become familiar with the new presentation program and AV equipment. This too will take time to get the most out of the resources that we have added.

JUNIOR HIGH YOUTH GROUP

Thank you, everyone, for participating in the Trick or Treat Bingo outing. Your work helps feed families in your community and serves the mission of the church.

As Matthew says in chapter 14, verse 16 of the New Testament, "Jesus replied, "They do not go away. You give them something to eat."

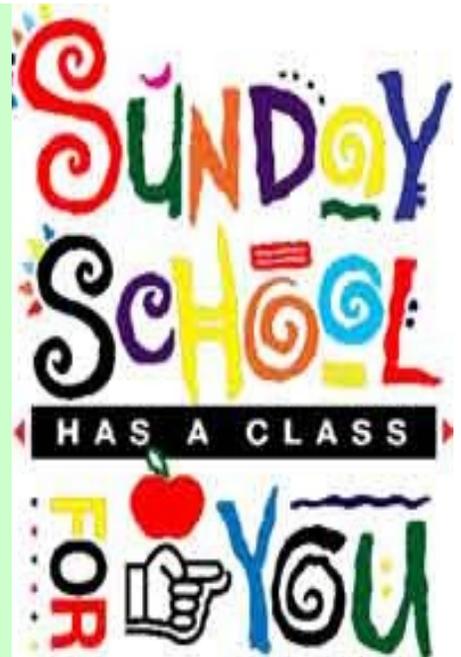

We'll be organizing another outing next month in collaboration with Vicki and Mark Olinger in support of Daybreak Shelter on November 4th.

Details will be sent out later this week.

God Bless,
Amy, Erik, and Jodi

All Creatures Great and Small

On Sunday, 10/25/15, the LUMC Sr. High Youth Group visited the A.D.O.P.T. Pet Shelter in Naperville. We learned about the shelter, played with some of the occupants, and posted on social media to try to get pets adopted. For our lesson, we discussed how Jesus is our Shepherd, guiding us onto the right path and keeping us safe. "I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me--just as the Father knows me and I know the Father--and I lay down my life for the sheep." (John 10:14-15) We also reflected on several scriptures which encourage us to take action to love and care for God's creatures as He loves and cares for us:

- Creation: God has created the earth and all living creatures. He has put man in charge of their use and care. (eg, Genesis 1:26)
- Care: God asks us to care for those who can not care for themselves. (eg, Matthew 25:40)
- Love: God expects us to love as he loves us-wholly and unconditionally. (eg, John 13:34)
- Action: God has given us each many gifts; he wants us to take action and use those gifts for good. (eg, James 2:14-17)

We finished off the evening enjoying Hot Dogs & Puppy Chow! :-)) This event fulfilled the Scripture quadrant for Q-Quest. Mark your calendars for next month; our SHYG event will be held on the evening of Sunday, November 15, 2015. More information will be sent closer to the event. All high school students are invited to participate in our Sr. High Youth Group so contact the church office to be included on the e-mail distribution list.

Thanks!

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM ANDY ROONEY

- *I've learned .... That the best classroom in the world is at the feet of an elderly person.
- *I've learned .... That when you're in love, it shows.
- *I've learned .... That just one person saying to me, 'You've made my day!' makes my day.
- *I've learned .... That having a child fall asleep in your arms is one of the most peaceful feelings in the world.
- *I've learned .... That being kind is more important than being right.
- *I've learned ... That you should never say no to a gift from a child.
- *I've learned .... That I can always pray for someone when I don't have the strength to help him in some other way.
- *I've learned .... That no matter how serious your life requires you to be, everyone needs a friend to act goofy with.
- *I've learned .... That sometimes all a person needs hand to hold and a heart to understand.
- *I've learned .... That simple walks with my father around the block on summer nights when I was a child did wonders for me as an adult.
- *I've learned .... That life is like a roll of toilet paper. The closer it gets to the end, the faster it goes.
- *I've learned .... That we should be glad God doesn't give us everything we ask for.
- *I've learned .... That money doesn't buy class.
- *I've learned .... That it's those small daily happenings that make life so spectacular.
- *I've learned .... That under everyone's hard shell is someone who wants to be appreciated and loved.
- *I've learned .... That to ignore the facts does not change the facts.
- *I've learned .... That when you plan to get even with someone, you are only letting that person continue to hurt you.
- *I've learned .... That love, not time, heals all wounds.
- *I've learned .... That the easiest way for me to grow as a person is to surround myself with people smarter than I am.
- *I've learned .... That everyone you meet deserves to be greeted with a smile.
- *I've learned .... That no one is perfect until you fall in love with them.
- *I've learned .... That life is tough, but I'm tougher.
- *I've learned .... That opportunities are never lost; someone will take the ones you miss.
- *I've learned ... . That when you harbor bitterness, happiness will dock elsewhere.
- *I've learned .... That I wish I could have told my Mom that I love her one more time before she passed away.
- *I've learned .... That one should keep his words both soft and tender, because tomorrow he may have to eat them.
- *I've learned .... That a smile is an inexpensive way to improve your looks.
- *I've learned .... That when your newly born grandchild holds your little finger in his little fist, that you're hooked for life.
- *I've learned .... That everyone wants to live on top of the mountain, but all the happiness and growth occurs while you're climbing it.
- *I've learned ..... That the less time I have to work with, the more things I get done.

Expanding Care Bear Ministry

Pastor Kelly takes communion to the "home bound" and visits those who are in the hospital. We are looking for people to prepare a home cooked meal and be with members when they have serious medical concerns-praying and providing support when needed. If you feel called to this ministry but are unable to cook, please donate gift cards from various places like Subway, Celina's or others in town, to distribute to members in need if Carebearers would not be able to provide a meal. Please consider this ministry prayerfully and contact :

If you are interest in joining our praise band please contact Pastor Kelly at 773-428-7877.

Primetimers

Saturday
November 21
12:00 p.m.

This is a group made up of adults 50 years and older. Primetimers meet monthly on the 3rd Saturday of each month with a potluck lunch at the church parsonage.

Everyone brings a favorite dish to share for an enjoyable afternoon.
