Notes to Parents

Dear Parents,

February 2010

Professional football has designated February as Superbowl month. How about making it "SuperKid" month for your family this year?

Pick a day—any day—and show your child just how special he/she is to you. It doesn't have to be Valentine's Day...in fact, it will be more fun if there is no other reason at all. If you have several children, give each kid their own special day.

Here are some ideas of things that you can do...

- Decorate. While they sleep, fancy up their space—maybe their room or door—so they wake up to a fun surprise. You can use balloons, streamers, paper chains, and pictures.
- Pack a Special Lunch. Do something different for their lunch. Send them with a special treat, or if possible, drop off a hot lunch at their school (like McDonald's). Include a note explaining exactly why they are so special to you. They'll be the envy of all their friends.
- Serve their favorite dinner. Even if it's just Mac-n-cheese, let them pick the meal. Just for today, don't worry about all the food groups.
- Bake a cake. And don't forget the candles! Every kid likes to blow out candles. The whole family can join in singing, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow!" Cakes aren't just for birthdays, you know.
- Say a prayer. During grace or before bedtime, Thank God—out loud—for your wonderful child. To make it extra meaningful, each family member can share one thing that they especially appreciate about the SuperKid.

How's that for a fun way to spice up an otherwise blah month? We can't wait to try it ourselves! Happy parenting!

Yours in Christ,

Karin Peraino & Mary Rohrer

Prayer Connect

This month's theme is
Christ-Like Attitude;
Philippians 2:5

Dear Lord,
May my children's attitude be the same as that of Christ Jesus, who loves us all.
